The Lessons & Gradual

First Reading: Acts 10:34–43

Lector: A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

PETER BEGAN TO SPEAK to Cornelius and the other Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ--he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual: Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24 (said in unison)

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; *
his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim, *

"His mercy endures for ever."

The Lord is my strength and my song, *
and he has become my salvation.

There is a sound of exultation and victory *
in the tents of the righteous:

"The right hand of the Lord has triumphed! *
the right hand of the Lord is exalted!
the right hand of the Lord has triumphed!"

I shall not die, but live, *

and declare the works of the Lord.

The Lord has punished me sorely, *
but he did not hand me over to death.

Open for me the gates of righteousness; *

I will enter them;

I will offer thanks to the Lord.

"This is the gate of the Lord; *
he who is righteous may enter."

I will give thanks to you, for you answered me *
and have become my salvation.

The same stone which the builders rejected *
has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing, *
and it is marvelous in our eyes.

On this day the Lord has acted; *
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Lector: A Reading from the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

IF FOR THIS LIFE ONLY we have hoped in Christ, we are of all people most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have died. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ. Then comes the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after he has destroyed every ruler and every authority and power. For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. The last enemy to be destroyed is death.

Hymn 174 – *At the Lamb's high feast we sing

The Holy Gospel: John 20:1-18

Celebrant        The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People            Glory to you, Lord Christ.

EARLY ON THE FIRST DAY of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into Paschal victim, where your blood is poured, death's dark angel sheathes his sword. Placing our hope in you, we pray for an end to violence and war. We pray for those who have been called to defend our country and the ways of freedom—those serving at home and abroad, especially:

Eli, Scott, Ben Davies, Jake, Luke, Nicholas H., Braden, Raymond, Nicholas T., Kacia Dolci, and Ryan

Risen Christ;

to you we give undying praise.

Author of Life, you are the ruler of creation. All things created on earth sing to your glory. From the death of the winter, raise the fair beauty of earth.

We pray for those celebrating birthdays, especially:

Paul Chowansky, Lori Copman, and Eric Jacobs

and for those celebrating anniversaries, especially:

Julie and Keith McBride

Risen Christ;

to you we give undying praise.

Resurrected One, bring us from sadness into joy. Where we live in darkness, brighten our lives with your splendor and give to all that peace that passes human knowing.

Risen Christ;

to you we give undying praise.

Jesus the health of the world, pour out your blame on our souls and the souls of all in pain or sorrow. Be the source of life for all people. We pray for those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially:

Richard Harries, Diane, Bob, Chet and Ellen Ehrman, Loretta

Dare, Ally Brune, Joan Bailey, Nancy Vogt, Meghan, Greg

Nancy Colon, Greta Schneider, Nancy Erickson,

Linda and Kevin Ryan, Jake Yersin, and Mary Marsden

Risen Christ;
to you we give undying praise.

Living Christ, nothing in this world can separate us from your love. May we follow where you have gone before us: to rest and reign with you in heaven. Bless and keep the dying and the dead. We remember those who have died, especially:

Dick LaBonté, and Armand Piantadosi

Risen Christ;
to you we give undying praise.
