FIRST READING: Isaiah 6:1-8

IN THE YEAR that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

GRADUAL: Psalm 138

I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *
before the gods I will sing your praise.
I will bow down toward your holy temple
and praise your Name, *
because of your love and faithfulness;
For you have glorified your Name *
and your word above all things.
When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.
Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

NOW I WOULD REMIND YOU, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you--unless you have come to believe in vain. For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them--though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

GOSPEL: Luke 5:1-11

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

8:00 am

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

ONCE WHILE JESUS was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

8:00 am

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, February 10, 9:00 am, Anglican Studies for Teens: This series of hour-long gatherings in the Conference Room will provide the necessary basics to be prepared for baptism and/or confirmation. It is also a great forum for: Understanding the Episcopal Church / Anglican Communion, Entering into conversation with other seekers of faith, and enjoying dialogue about subjects that might not otherwise be part of our daily discussions.

Sunday, February 10, 10:15 am, Family Service: our church school students will be participating in the church service.

Sunday February 10, Hearts for Hope: the church school children will once again be ‘selling’ their homemade Valentine’s Day cards. All donations will be given to St. Gregory’s Pantry. We hope to see you there!

Wednesday, February 13, 8:30 am, Holy Eucharist: Most times, the mid-week celebration of the Holy Eucharist includes a special commemoration of a particular person or event in the Episcopal Church calendar, this week’s commemoration is Absalom Jones.

Wednesday, February 13, 11:00 am, Weekly Bible Study: This Lectionary-Based Bible Study, which uses the Synthesis CE material distributed on Sundays, can be a great help for us to become more familiar with the scripture that will be read on Sundays. We conclude our time together with the brief service of Noonday Prayer. All are welcome, no prerequisite necessary.

Wednesday, February 13, 6:30 pm, Benedictine Way: This group begins with Evening Prayer. Benedictine Way is the name for a group that gathers weekly with the Rector to explore the 1,500+ year-old Rule of Saint Benedict and Benedictine spirituality and how they can help us to further develop our relationship with God and with each other. Norveen Vest's book PREFERRING CHRIST is used as part of this time together. More information is available on our website. All are welcome, no prerequisite necessary.

Sunday, February 17, 9:00 am, Anglican Studies for Adults: This series of hour-long gatherings in the Conference Room will provide the necessary basics to be prepared for baptism and/or confirmation. It is also a great forum for: Understanding the Episcopal Church / Anglican Communion, Entering into conversation with other seekers of faith, and enjoying dialogue about subjects that might not otherwise be part of our daily discussions.

Sunday, February 17 and 24, Church School will not meet because of President's weekend.

Tuesday, February 19, 5:30 pm, Women's Guild Ladies Night Out, Wharfside Restaurant, Pt. Pleasant Beach: Look for us in the dining room. Everyone pays their own way. All women of the church are welcome to join us. It's a great night to meet new friends of the church and an opportunity for anyone who can't make our regularly scheduled daytime meetings. Hope to see you there!

Wednesday, February 20, Newsletter deadline: Please submit all articles to Linda Gyurko.

Sunday, March 3, following Hospitality: there will be a meeting of the Cannon Memorial Scholarship working group. All interested parishioners are invited to attend.
