FIRST READING: Deuteronomy 26:1-11

WHEN YOU HAVE COME into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, "Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: "A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labor on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me." You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

GRADUAL: Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, *
abides under the shadow of the Almighty.
He shall say to the Lord,
"You are my refuge and my stronghold, *
my God in whom I put my trust."
Because you have made the Lord your refuge, *
and the Most High your habitation,
There shall no evil happen to you, *
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
For he shall give his angels charge over you, *
to keep you in all your ways.
They shall bear you in their hands, *
lest you dash your foot against a stone.
You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent
under your feet.
Because he is bound to me in love,
therefore will I deliver him; *
I will protect him, because he knows my Name.
He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; *
I am with him in trouble;
I will rescue him and bring him to honor.
With long life will I satisfy him, *
and show him my salvation.

SECOND READING: Romans 10:8b-13

"THE WORD IS NEAR YOU, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved."

GOSPEL: Luke 6:27-38

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

8:00 am

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

After his baptism, Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the wilderness, where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing at all during those days, and when they were over, he was famished. The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become a loaf of bread." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'One does not live by bread alone.'" Then the devil led him up and showed him in an instant all the kingdoms of the world. And the devil said to him, "To you I will give their glory and all this authority; for it has been given over to me, and I give it to anyone I please. If you, then, will worship me, it will all be yours." Jesus answered him, "It is written, 'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'" Then the devil took him to Jerusalem, and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here, for it is written, 'He will command his angels concerning you, to protect you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus answered him, "It is said, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'" When the devil had finished every test, he departed from him until an opportune time.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

8:00 am

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, March 10, 9:00 am, Anglican Studies for Teens: This series of hour-long gatherings in the Conference Room will provide the necessary basics to be prepared for baptism and/or confirmation. It is also a great forum for: Understanding the Episcopal Church / Anglican Communion, Entering into conversation with other seekers of faith, and enjoying dialogue about subjects that might not otherwise be part of our daily discussions.

Wednesday, March 13, 8:30 am, Holy Eucharist: Most times, the mid-week celebration of the Holy Eucharist includes a special commemoration of a particular person or event in the Episcopal Church calendar, this week's commemoration is James Theodore Holly.

Wednesday, March 13, 11:00 am, Weekly Bible Study: This Lectionary-Based Bible Study, which uses the Synthesis CE material distributed on Sundays, can be a great help for us to become more familiar with the scripture that will be read on Sundays. We conclude our time together with the brief service of Noonday Prayer. All are welcome, no prerequisite necessary.

Wednesday, March 13, 7:30 pm, The Way of Love: This 5-week Lenten program is based on Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's design that includes a nine-point approach to practices for a Jesus-centered life.
[Benedictine Way will resume on Wednesday, May 1]

Sunday, March 17, 9:00 am, Anglican Studies for Adults: This series of hour-long gatherings in the Conference Room will provide the necessary basics to be prepared for baptism and/or confirmation. It is also a great forum for: Understanding the Episcopal Church / Anglican Communion, Entering into conversation with other seekers of faith, and enjoying dialogue about subjects that might not otherwise be part of our daily discussions.

Through Sunday, March 24, Dress 2 Impress: Family Partners and Dress 2

Impress is celebrating 160 years of helping fathers and families. All Saints is conducting a clothing drive for men's suits, sports jackets, dress shirts, dress pants, belts, ties, socks, and shoes. The racks will be in Bristol Hall from March 3rd thru the 24th. Can we help Family Partners celebrate 160 years with 160 articles of clothing? See the flyer on the Outreach bulletin board, or call Phyllis Kata 732-892-5198.

Tuesday, March 26, from 4-6 pm, Supper with All Saints: We welcome all to enjoy good food with friends. For any who would like to help serve the dinner, please check the sign-up sheet on the Outreach bulletin board in Bristol Hall. See you on the 26th!

Through Sunday, April 7, Easter Baskets for St. Gregory's Pantry: Please stop by the pussy willow display in Bristol Hall and select a special "egg," created by our church school children. Each one has the gender and age of a child from birth to 17, hoping the Easter Bunny will bring a basket for Easter morning. We invite you to create a basket or buy one already made, and return it to Bristol Hall by Sunday, April 7th. We also have suggestions for items to include in a basket if you're looking for ideas.

United Thank Offering: The little blue boxes are now available for your thankful coins. The UTO is a ministry of the Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church.
