FIRST READING: Isaiah 43:16–21

THUS SAYS THE LORD, who makes a way in the sea, a path in the mighty waters, who brings out chariot and horse, army and warrior; they lie down, they cannot rise, they are extinguished, quenched like a wick: Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert. The wild animals will honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; for I give water in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, to give drink to my chosen people, the people whom I formed for myself so that they might declare my praise.

GRADUAL: Psalm 126 (said in unison)

When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, *
then were we like those who dream.
Then was our mouth filled with laughter, *
and our tongue with shouts of joy.
Then they said among the nations, *
"The Lord has done great things for them."
The Lord has done great things for us, *
and we are glad indeed.
Restore our fortunes, O Lord, *
like the watercourses of the Negev.
Those who sowed with tears *
will reap with songs of joy.
Those who go out weeping, carrying the seed, *
will come again with joy, shouldering their sheaves.

SECOND READING: Philippians 3:4b–14

IF ANYONE ELSE has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless. Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead. Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

GOSPEL: John 12:1–8

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

8:00 am

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

SIX DAYS BEFORE the Passover Jesus came to Bethany, the home of Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. There they gave a dinner for him. Martha served, and Lazarus was one of those at the table with him. Mary took a pound of costly perfume made of pure nard, anointed Jesus' feet, and wiped them with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (the one who was about to betray him), said, "Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor?" (He said this not because he cared about the poor, but because he was a thief; he kept the common purse and used to steal what was put into it.) Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She bought it so that she might keep it for the day of my burial. You always have the poor with you, but you do not always have me."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

8:00 am

People Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Sisters and brothers, God has done great things for us. With glad and thankful hearts, let us pray,

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

Do a new thing in your Church, O God. From our dry places spring forth new life. Refresh your bishops, priests, and deacons. Refresh all Christians in their vocations. We pray for those celebrating birthdays, especially:
Chloe Colyar, Robert Nagy, Donna Richardson, Marianne Romaine, and Joseph Veni and for those celebrating anniversaries.

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

Restore the dreams of those who have lost hope. Among the swift and varied changes of the world, be a strong foundation on which all can rely. We pray for those who have been called to defend our country and the ways of freedom—those serving at home and abroad, especially:
Eli, Scott, Ben Davies, Jake, Luke, Nicholas H., Braden, Raymond, Nicholas T., Kacia Dolci, and Ryan

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

Give water in dry places. Remove the suffering of those who live with drought. Bring water, quench thirst, and give growth in desperate lands.

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

We pray, O God, for the poor. Be merciful to victims of theft. Restore the fortunes of those devastated by dishonest people. Never forget the lives of your poor.

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

Let those who sow with tears, reap with songs of joy. Fill down-turned mouths with shouts of joyful deliverance. Restore your people, O God. We pray for those who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially:

Bob, Chet and Ellen Ehrman, Tom Oakes, Loretta Dare, Ally Brune, Joan Bailey, Nancy Vogt, Meghan, Greg Deppler, Gail Kellogg, Jill, Savena, Denise, Sam A., Sammy A., John McManmon, Ruth Doran, Mindy Williams, Slade Carter, Nancy Colon, Greta Schneider, Linda and Kevin Ryan, Nancy Erickson, Jake Yersin, and Mary Marsden

Fix our hearts where joy is found;
O God, hear our prayer

O God, we long to know Christ and the power of his resurrection. Even as we share in his suffering, even as we die, may we, and all who die, attain the resurrection of the dead. We remember those who have died, especially:

Jack M. Wittke

Fix our hearts where joy is found;

O God, hear our prayer
