FIRST READING

Lector: A Reading from the Book of Isaiah

For I am about to create new heavens and a new earth; the former things shall not be remembered or come to mind. But be glad and rejoice forever in what I am creating; for I am about to create Jerusalem as a joy, and its people as a delight. I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and delight in my people; no more shall the sound of weeping be heard in it, or the cry of distress. No more shall there be in it an infant that lives but a few days, or an old person who does not live out a lifetime; for one who dies at a hundred years will be considered a youth, and one who falls short of a hundred will be considered accursed. They shall build houses and inhabit them; they shall plant vineyards and eat their fruit. They shall not build and another inhabit; they shall not plant and another eat; for like the days of a tree shall the days of my people be, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labor in vain, or bear children for calamity; for they shall be offspring blessed by the Lord—and their descendants as well. Before they call I will answer, while they are yet speaking I will hear. The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, the lion shall eat straw like the ox; but the serpent—its food shall be dust! They shall not hurt or destroy on all my holy mountain, says the Lord.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL: Canticle 9 (said in unison)

Surely, it is God who saves me; *
I will trust in him and not be afraid.

For the Lord is my stronghold and my sure defense, *
and he will be my Savior.

Therefore you shall draw water with rejoicing *
from the springs of salvation.

And on that day you shall say, *
Give thanks to the Lord and call upon his Name;

Make his deeds known among the peoples; *
see that they remember that his Name is exalted.

Sing the praises of the Lord, for he has done great things, *
and this is known in all the world.

Cry aloud, inhabitants of Zion, ring out your joy, * for the great one in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.

SECOND READING

Lector: A Reading from the Second Letter of Paul to the Thessalonians

Now we command you, beloved, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from believers who are living in idleness and not according to the tradition that they received from us. For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us; we were not idle when we were with you, and we did not eat anyone's bread without paying for it; but with toil and labor we worked night and day, so that we might not burden any of you. This was not because we do not have that right, but in order to give you an example to imitate. For even when we were with you, we gave you this command: Anyone unwilling to work should not eat. For we hear that some of you are living in idleness, mere busybodies, not doing any work. Now such persons we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to do their work quietly and to earn their own living. Brothers and sisters, do not be weary in doing what is right.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

8:00 am People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with beautiful stones and gifts dedicated to God, Jesus said, "As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left upon another; all will be thrown down." They asked him, "Teacher, when will this be, and what will be the sign that this is about to take place?" And he said, "Beware that you are not led astray; for many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and, 'The time is near!' Do not go after them. "When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; for these things must take place first, but the end will not follow immediately." Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be great earthquakes, and in various places famines and plagues; and there will be dreadful portents and great signs from heaven." But before all this occurs, they will arrest you and persecute you; they will hand you over to synagogues and prisons, and you will be brought before kings and governors because of my name. This will give you an opportunity to testify. So make up your minds not to prepare your defense in advance; for I will give you words and a wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to withstand or contradict. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, by relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

8:00 am People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Sisters and brothers, do not be weary in doing what is right. It is right to give God thanks and praise; therefore, let us say,

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to your Church. Give us your words and your wisdom. May we have the strength to bear the name of Jesus in all circumstances.

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to this nation. Save us from arrogance and self-reliance. Grant us to be a nation that favors peace over war, life rather than death.

We pray for those who have been called to defend our country and the ways of freedom—those serving at home and abroad, especially:

Chaplain Bill Kapr, Eli, Scott, Ben Davies, Jake, Luke, Braden, Nicholas H., Raymond, Nicholas T., Kacia Dolci, and Ryan

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to all of creation. May the seas and their creatures noisily praise you; may the rivers clap their hands and the hills ring out with joy before you, their Creator.

We pray for those celebrating birthdays, especially:

Judith Carduner, Linda Gyurko, and Richard Williams and for those celebrating anniversaries, especially:

Susan & Ernie Scherler, and Cheryl & Clayton Smith

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to our city. We pray that there may be work enough for all our citizens, that they might earn a living that promotes dignity and health.

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to all your children.

Come to them, Lover of Souls, with healing in your wings.

We pray for those who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit, especially:

Joe Cantaffa, Phil, Rob, George T., Meghan, Marguerite, Carl Hiby, Diane, Linda Griggs, Jill, Bob, Savena, Judy Grundling, Ernie Scherler, Kathy Hewson, Baby Arlo, Wellington, Ruth Doran, Richard & Carol Harries, Joan Bailey, Chet & Ellen Ehrman, Nancy Erickson, Slade Carter, Nancy Colon, Jake Yersin, and Mary Marsden

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!

O God, remember your mercy and faithfulness to all who have died.

Bless them for their endurance. May they forever rest in that land where the sound of weeping is heard no more.

We remember those who have died, especially:

Lauren Akins, and Werner Dahl

Sing to the Lord a new song:

O God, you have done marvelous things!
