FIRST READING

Lector: A Reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes

Vanity of vanities, says the Teacher, vanity of vanities! All is vanity. I, the Teacher, when king over Israel in Jerusalem, applied my mind to seek and to search out by wisdom all that is done under heaven; it is an unhappy business that God has given to human beings to be busy with. I saw all the deeds that are done under the sun; and see, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. I hated all my toil in which I had toiled under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to those who come after me -- and who knows whether they will be wise or foolish? Yet they will be master of all for which I toiled and used my wisdom under the sun. This also is vanity. So I turned and gave my heart up to despair concerning all the toil of my labors under the sun, because sometimes one who has toiled with wisdom and knowledge and skill must leave all to be enjoyed by another who did not toil for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. What do mortals get from all the toil and strain with which they toil under the sun? For all their days are full of pain, and their work is a vexation; even at night their minds do not rest. This also is vanity.

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL: Psalm 49:1–11 (said in unison)

Hear this, all you peoples;
hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
    you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.
My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
    and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
I will incline my ear to a proverb *
    and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
    when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,
The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
    and boast of their great riches?
We can never ransom ourselves, *
    or deliver to God the price of our life;
For the ransom of our life is so great, *
    that we should never have enough to pay it,
In order to live for ever and ever, *
    and never see the grave.
For we see that the wise die also;
like the dull and stupid they perish *
    and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
Their graves shall be their homes for ever,
their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
    though they call the lands after their own names.
Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
    they are like the beasts that perish.

SECOND READING

Lector:           A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Colossians

If you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed, then you also will be revealed with him in glory. Put to death, therefore, whatever in you is earthly: fornication, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed (which is idolatry). On account of these the wrath of God is coming on those who are disobedient. These are the ways you also once followed, when you were living that life. But now you must get rid of all such things-- anger, wrath, malice, slander, and abusive language from your mouth. Do not lie to one another, seeing that you have stripped off the old self with its practices and have clothed yourselves with the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of its creator. In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all!

Lector:           The word of the Lord.

People:         Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

5:30 pm People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

8:00 am People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. And I will say to my soul, 'Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

5:30 pm People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

8:00 am People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Sisters and brothers, children of God, let us come before the Most High with humility, saying,

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

Set our minds on things divine, O God, that your Church may guard itself against the love of earthly things and instead be rich towards you.

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

May all who dwell in the world, those of both high degree and low, incline their hearts to wisdom and meditate on understanding.

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

Give us grace to be wise and generous stewards, O God. Open our eyes to see your abundance and our reliance.

We pray for those celebrating birthdays, especially:

Holli Brooks, Matthew Brune, Altha Morton, Curt Morton, Sabrina Thompson, and Peggy Williams

And for those celebrating anniversaries, especially:

Bea & Robert Nagy

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

Bless all those to whom we are connected. May we value our relationships more than our possessions. May we realize that in Christ all human distinctions cease to matter. We pray for justice and peace. We pray for those who have been called to defend our country and the ways of freedom—those serving at home and abroad, especially:

Eli, Scott, Ben Davies, Jake, Luke, Nicholas H., Braden, Raymond, Nicholas T., Kacia Dolci, and Ryan

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

Comfort and heal all those who are in pain or sorrow or any kind of trouble. May we, who have known sorrow, pain and trouble, show them mercy and compassion and remind them of the hope we have in Christ. We pray for those who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit, especially:

Kathy Hewson, Karen Ann, Baby Arlo, Wellington, Diane, Bob, Richard Harries, Ally Brune, Loretta Dare, Chet & Ellen Ehrman, Joan Bailey, Jill, Ruth Doran, Mindy Williams, Slade Carter, Nancy Colon, Nancy Erickson, Linda & Kevin Ryan, Savena, Jake Yersin, and Mary Marsden

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

We acknowledge our mortality before you, Everlasting God, and we rejoice in the hope of being raised with Christ. We remember before you're the lives of our forebears; may they find, in you, rest from their labors.

We remember those who have died.

Great and holy God,
incline your ear to us.

As part of our process to determine what we should offer in the way of mid-week worship services, there will be two meetings where everyone interested is encouraged to attend one of them. In the recent publication entitled “What’s the Difference Between Curing and Healing?,” it was suggested that we might want to have a mid-week healing service. So, if you are interested in attending mid-week worship, please sign-up for one of the two meetings listed on the easel in Bristol Hall so we can discuss our options.

ALTAR FLOWERS:

Please consider donating flowers for the altar in honor or memory of loved ones. Many weeks for this year are still available. The sign up book is in the Narthex. The cost for Altar flowers is $55 and Font flowers is $65.
