FIRST READING

Lector: A Reading from the Book of Jeremiah

Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the Lord. Therefore thus says the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who shepherd my people: It is you who have scattered my flock, and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. So I will attend to you for your evil doings, says the Lord. Then I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply. I will raise up shepherds over them who will shepherd them, and they shall not fear any longer, or be dismayed, nor shall any be missing, says the Lord. The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. In his days Judah will be saved and Israel will live in safety. And this is the name by which he will be called: "The Lord is our righteousness."

Lector: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GRADUAL: Canticle 16 (said in unison)

Lector: Let us now say together Canticle 16 as it is printed in your order of service.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *
he has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies, *
from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers *
and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, *
holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, *
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give people knowledge of salvation *
by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God *
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

SECOND READING

Lector: A Reading from the Letter of Paul to the Colossians

May you be made strong with all the strength that comes from his glorious power, and may you be prepared to endure everything with patience, while joyfully giving thanks to the Father, who has enabled you to share in the inheritance of the saints in the light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation; for in him all things in heaven and on earth were created, things visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or powers-- all things have been created through him and for him. He himself is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him God was pleased to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, by making peace through the blood of his cross.

Lector: The word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

8:00 am People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:15 am People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified Jesus there with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots to divide his clothing. The people stood by, watching Jesus on the cross; but the leaders scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!" The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!" There was also an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews." One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us!" But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

8:00 am People: Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:15 am People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Prayers of the People

Sisters and brothers, God has raised up for us a righteous ruler: Jesus our Christ. Let us lift our prayers to him, saying,

We praise you, O Christ;

you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, remember your body, the Church. You have rescued us from the power of darkness and have transferred us into your realm. Make us strong with all the strength that comes from your glorious power.

We praise you, O Christ;

you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, remember this nation. Guide our feet into the way of peace. Raise up leaders who govern their people wisely and justly. We pray for those who have been called to defend our country and the ways of freedom—those serving at home and abroad, especially:

Chaplain Bill Kapr, Eli, Scott, Ben Davies, Jake, Luke, Braden, Nicholas H., Raymond, Nicholas T., Kacia Dolci, and Ryan

We praise you, O Christ;

you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, all things in heaven and on earth are created through you and for you. May we who care for your creation do so with all due respect. We pray for those celebrating birthdays, especially:

Kiersten Litton, and Scott McMurray and for those celebrating anniversaries.

We praise you, O Christ;

you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, remember this region in which we live and work and worship. Drive far from us all fear and dismay. Rescue the missing; find the lost. May all of your children live in safety.

We praise you, O Christ;

you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, you know intimately the experience of pain and suffering in your own body. May all those suffering know that you are with them in their pain.

We pray for those who are suffering in body, mind, or spirit, especially:
Jerry & Karen Miller, Joe Cantaffa, Phil, Rob, George T., Meghan, Marguerite, Carl Hiby, Diane, Linda Griggs, Jill, Bob, Savena, Judy Grundling, Ernie Scherler, Kathy Hewson, Baby Arlo, Wellington, Ruth Doran, Richard & Carol Harries, Joan Bailey, Chet & Ellen Ehrman, Nancy Erickson, Slade Carter, Nancy Colon, Jake Yersin, and Mary Marsden

We praise you, O Christ;
you have come to your people and set us free!

O Jesus, accept those who have died into your realm. Give all the departed peace through the blood of your cross and, in the fullness of time, raise them to newness of life.

We remember those who have died, especially:
Frederick Lombard, and Jean Koar

We praise you, O Christ;
you have come to your people and set us free!

Dear, Friends

After nine years as Parish Administrator, I have decided to return to that which I am educated and trained to do; I am returning to the therapeutic mental health environment in an elementary school. My last regular work day will be Friday, December 6. I have enjoyed my time serving this parish and will continue to serve as a chalice bearer, and worship with this faith community. It has been a privilege and I am thankful.

Blessings,
Christine
