The Collect of the Day

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from 1 Samuel 1:4-20

Mark Durham/Angelina O’Neill

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the LORD had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the LORD, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, “Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?”

After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: “O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a Nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head.”

As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, “How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine.” But Hannah answered, “No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the LORD. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time.” Then Eli answered, “Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him.”

And she said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD."

Psalm 16

Conserva me, Domine

- <sup>1</sup> Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."
- <sup>2</sup> All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *
upon those who are noble among the people.
- <sup>3</sup> But those who run after other gods *
shall have their troubles multiplied.
- <sup>4</sup> Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
- <sup>5</sup> O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
- <sup>6</sup> My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- <sup>7</sup> I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.
- <sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD always before me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
- <sup>9</sup> My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
my body also shall rest in hope.
- <sup>10</sup> For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
nor let your holy one see the Pit.
- <sup>11</sup> You will show me the path of life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

A Reading from Hebrews 10:11-14 (15-18) 19-25

Mark Durham/Ruairi O'Neill

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering, he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. [And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,” he also adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.”

Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.]

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the day approaching.

Communion Motet: "Ave Verum"

Sir Edward Elgar

Jesu, word of God incarnate, of the Virgin Mary born, on thy cross thy sacred body for us men with nails was torn.
Cleanse us by the blood and water, streaming from thy pierced side:
feed us with thy body broken, now and in death's agony!
O Jesu, hear us, son of Mary.

St. Gregory's Pantry

We help those in need locally through St. Gregory's Pantry. These items are especially needed in November.

Stuffing, cranberry sauce, gravy, canned yams, salad dressing, mayo, canned ground coffee, canned vegetables, cleaning supplies and paper towels.

Stewardship Ingathering and Parish Thanksgiving Pie Feast next week on Sunday, November 24th We will again offer the opportunity for us to share our personal thanksgivings, place our pledges in the Baptismal font for prayer of blessing, and then continue the celebration in Bristol Hall with a feast of pies! Please sign up on the bulletin board to attend and, if you would like to share your family's favorite pie, please sign up to bring it! This will be our third year with this tradition, which is becoming one of our favorite annual events. Come ye thankful people come!

Community Thanksgiving, Tuesday, November 26th at 7 pm at Bay Head Chapel You are invited to join together with the churches of Bay Head and Point Pleasant for the 2nd annual community Thanksgiving service. Our own Stephen Pinel will serve as the Minister of Music and lead the combined choirs. All are welcome both for the service and to join the choir for the evening. The offering will benefit St. Gregory's Food Pantry. All are warmly invited to join.

Come One and All Parish Tree Lighting and Chili Cook-Off

Wednesday, December 4th, 5:30 – 7:30 pm

We will begin outside with a few carols, the blessing of our Christmas tree, and finally, the lighting of our beautiful tree for all to see! Then join in our Chili Cook-Off in Bristol Hall! If you have a chili or cornbread recipe you would like to prepare and enter, please sign up on the bulletin board. There is also a sign up for all who plan to attend to assist with our preparation. Suggested donation of $5 per person or $20 per family. If you have any questions speak to Linda Gyurko.
