The Collect of the Day

O God, whose blessed Son came into the world that he might destroy the works of the devil and make us children of God and heirs of eternal life: Grant that, having this hope, we may purify ourselves as he is pure; that, when he comes again with power and great glory, we may be made like him in his eternal and glorious kingdom; where he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from Ruth 3:1-5; 4:13-17

Mark Durham/Linda Gyurko

Naomi her mother-in-law said to Ruth, "My daughter, I need to seek some security for you, so that it may be well with you. Now here is our kinsman Boaz, with whose young women you have been working. See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing floor. Now wash and anoint yourself, and put on your best clothes and go down to the threshing floor; but do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking. When he lies down, observe the place where he lies; then, go and uncover his feet and lie down; and he will tell you what to do." She said to her, "All that you tell me I will do." So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. When they came together, the LORD made her conceive, and she bore a son. Then the women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without next-of-kin; and may his name be renowned in Israel! He shall be to you a restorer of life and a nourisher of your old age; for your daughter-in-law who loves you, who is more to you than seven sons, has borne him." Then Naomi took the child and laid him in her bosom, and became his nurse. The women of the neighborhood gave him a name, saying, "A son has been born to Naomi." They named him Obed; he became the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Psalm 127

- 1 Unless the LORD builds the house, *
their labor is in vain who build it.
- 2 Unless the LORD watches over the city, *
in vain the watchman keeps his vigil.
- 3 It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late; *
vain, too, to eat the bread of toil,
for he gives to his beloved sleep.
- 4 Children are a heritage from the LORD, *
and the fruit of the womb is a gift.
- 5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior *
are the children of one's youth.
- 6 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them! *
he shall not be put to shame
when he contends with his enemies in the gate.

A Reading from Hebrews 9:24-28

Mark Durham/Jeremy Lees

Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself. And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

Hymn: #632 "O Christ, the Word Incarnate" vs. 1-2

Munich

Celebrant: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 12:38-44

Glory to you Lord Christ.

As Jesus taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers. They will receive the greater condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Collect for our Country

p. 820

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will.

Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Confession and Absolution

p. 393

The Peace and Offertory Sentence

Please share the peace with those in your pew and a distanced greeting with others.

Offertory Anthem: "Grant us thy peace"

Felix Mendelssohn

*Grant us thy peace, Almighty God, the source of every blessing!
Feeble and frail, trust we thy word, all things in thee possessing.
In Thee is our hope and safety.*

MARK YOUR CALENDARS NOW FOR THESE UPCOMING EVENTS!!

Stewardship Ingathering and Parish Thanksgiving Pie Feast Mark your calendars now for Sunday, November 24th when we will celebrate our annual All Saints' Thanksgiving with our Stewardship Ingathering and Pie Feast! We will again offer the opportunity for us to share our personal thanksgivings, place our pledges in the Baptismal font for prayer of blessing, and then continue the celebration in Bristol Hall with a feast of pies! Please sign up on the bulletin board to attend and, if you would like to share your family's favorite pie, please sign-up to bring it! This will be our third year with this tradition, which is becoming one of our favorite annual events. Come ye thankful people come!

Community Thanksgiving, Tuesday, November 26th at 7 pm at Bay Head Chapel You are invited to join together with the churches of Bay Head and Point Pleasant for the 2nd annual community Thanksgiving service. Our own Stephen Pinel will serve as the Minister of Music and lead the combined choirs. All are welcome both for the service and to join the choir for the evening. The offering will benefit St. Gregory's Food Pantry. All are warmly invited to join.

Parish Tree Lighting and Chili Cook-Off Please see the flyer below and mark your calendars for our Annual All Saints Tree Lighting, Wednesday, December 4th at 5:30 pm. The event will begin outside with carols and tree lighting and then move indoors for our Chili Cook-Off! We are very excited to bring this event back onto our parish calendar, so who wants to make some chili? Sign-up on the bulletin board.

Do You Have a Great Chili Recipe?

We are looking to bring back the popular CHILI COOK-OFF that we have enjoyed in the past. Here's what we are thinking ...

Chili Cook-off to coincide with
The Parish Christmas Tree Lighting
Wednesday, December 4th at 5:30 pm

Looking for folks willing to make a big pot of your best! Also looking for folks who like to make cornbread!

Thank you to Linda Gyurko who has volunteered to help us see if there is interest and get us reorganized for a great night! Please call or email Linda if you are willing to cook or bake. landbg@optonline.net or 732-363-9891
